MAIL BID LIST #10

CLOSING APR 30 1985

Besides the historic German and U.S. pieces shown here on the cover collectors can find a listing of African Colonial tokens just inside the front page. Other areas of interest are Canada and Scotland Communion tokens, rare Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua plantation and merchant pieces and early Chile/Peru Nitrate Mine tokens.

From the British Isles is a selection of early 19th Century silver tokens as well as a decent representation of German porcelains from the 1920's. Portugal and its territory of Madeira Island once again make an appearance. Look, too, for a rare Austrian POW Camp 500 Heller Iron piece.

Under the "Counters" heading are several 15th and 16th Century reckoning counters, one scarce one from a German mining firm of the day. An Illinois Encased Cent from the rare town of Newton is also listed.

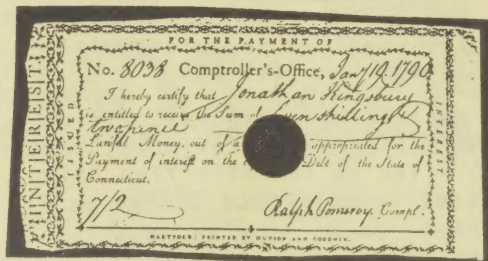

Lot descriptions are of necessity brief and oriented to numismatists. Sizes are usually in millimeters, although larger paper pieces are often in inches. Tokens are considered to be round unless otherwise indicated. Metals are shown as Al, Br, Cop, Nkl, Ir, Zn or Pl(astic). Parentheses are often used and mean that the information found enclosed is not usually found on the piece. Catalog numbers encountered are found in such (e.g. L#101.3) and refer to the most standard work for the topic at hand. Since listing each reference would be too awkward, please write if you need to know. Dollar values in parentheses, e.g. ($25) mean an estimated market value. An "MB" enclosed with the dollar value means "Minimum Bid" or reserve placed on a lot. Comments on my listings and methods of operation are always welcome.

1. COLORADO AND MAINE: A 92 page autograph album carried by a woman named Carrie who emigrated in 1879 to the Silverton-Durango area. There are autographs of a number of residents of the Saco, Maine, area and several of the early residents of Colorado. The 4½x7 booklet is morocco-covered with gilding. Edges are somewhat worn, but otherwise VF condition. 1879-81 ($30-35)

2. EARLY UNITED STATES: A 3½x7 pale green interest coupon drawn on the State of Connecticut. The date is January 19, 1790 payable to one "Jonathan Kingsbury" ... "the sum of Seven shillings & Two pence." It was issued a bare two years after the adoption of the U.S. Constitution. The new decimal coinage was still two years away and the old English system still was in effect. Not a terribly important item, but a genuine artifact from a time before there was much thought being given to the idea that there might some day be a Colorado. ($25-30).

COLONIAL AFRICA

3. Suez Canal: The idea of digging a canal from the Mediterranean to the Gulf of Suez had its beginnings with the Pharaohs. Several starts were made by the Persians and Ptolemies, and later by the Roman Emperor Trajan. Several European leaders considered the possibility including Napoleon. It took the Frenchman, De Lesseps, with the help of the Egyptian Khedive to begin construction in 1859 and to finally open it for traffic ten years later.

One of the companies involved in the construction was Borel Lavalley Et Cie which issued several denominations of tokens. The one offered here is the 20c, 18mm bronze. It is listed in the STANDARD CATALOG OF WORLD COINS as #Tn5 and valued at $120 in XF. It is also considered to be part of the French emergency money collection by Manasselian. This piece is an AU-Unc with not much more than cabinet friction on the highest points ($200)

4. Algeria: Chambre De Commerce De Bougie 10c 1915 (Lamb#1.2) Not a rare one, but in outstanding Brilliant Unc ($15-20)

5. Egypt: Splendid-Bar, Minieh, 5 M. Minieh is a provincial center 150 miles up the Nile from Cairo. Listed in my FRENCH TOKENS as S#6. Nickel, 24mm, Fine on obverse, Good on Reverse ($20-25)

6. German Southwest Africa:

3. Kompaonie, 1 Mark. Dr. Theron notes in his TOKENS OF SOUTHERN AFRICA that the Third Artillery Company was stationed in Windhoek from 1890 to 1914 when the town was taken by South African forces. His number is SWA#10. Brass, 25mm, EF ($40-45)

7. Senegal: Chambre De Commerce, Dakar 1920 10c (Lamb#1.2) Octag Alum, 22mm EF ($35-45)

8. Uganda: Societa Coloniale Italiana, Entebbe (lion and snake in combat). Uganda was always a British Protectorate until recently. This piece was issued by an Italian entrepreneurial firm. Not much known about it. Late 1800's. Bronze, 24mm EF ($50-55)

MEXICO

Colonial & Early 19th C.

Most of the tokens in this series were issued in the period from the late colonial administration to that of Maximilian. They are crude, made made more often by ironmongers than

 as many were stamped on irregular pieces of metal. The denominations were 1/8 and 1/2 Real in the main. There are no MS-65's in this group. Look mainly for evenly struck or cast designs with minimum wear.

Later 19th C/ 20th C.

Collar-struck and imported tokens came into use in Mexico approximately with the advent of Porfirio Diaz, and at a time when U.S. and European diesinkers were aggressively seeking out new markets for their wares. Many Mexican pieces of the later 19th C. were foreign made. Not until after the 20th C. Revolution did Mexican diesinkers begin to come into their own.

GERMANY

362. GNEISENAU (from front cover) sent down the English Channel to the new naval base at Brest on the western tip of France. Once there the two were blockaded by the Royal Navy under Admiral Tovey and eventually severely damaged by the Royal Air Force. Neither played any significant part in the war after that.

Like the token for the WWI Gneisenau this 22mm aluminum piece served as a liquor ration token. On the reverse is 10 (Pf). It is Unc with very light scratches on the rev. ($50-65)

495. KIAUCHAU (from front cover)

In August of 1914 the Japanese Army attacked and captured the Kiauchau District along with a smaller British force. The naval squadron except for the Emden, escaped to the central Pacific where for a few months it harassed British shipping. In November the Royal Navy's South American Squadron fought and lost a major engagement to Von Spee near Coronel, Chile. The Germans then sailed south around the horn to the Falkland Islands where the Gneisenau was sunk by the British on December 8 at 1800 hours along with most of the others. Only the Dresden survived for another year.

The 21mm brass token with the legend KANTINE/ GNEISENAU has a reverse denomination of 10 (Pf). Its style is from German tokens of the period 1890-1914. Its most likely use was as a means to distribute the sailors' liquor ration. The one on sale here is an Extra Fine. It is one of the few tokens that can be assigned with certainty to German Kiauchau ($100-150).

MAIL BID LIST #10

PRICES REALIZED

There were several pieces which sold for over $100. The Suez Canal token (#3) went for $165. The Madeira Islands Colson, Smith and Robinson piece sold for $126. Even though later information revealed that the German naval token (#495) was not of Far Eastern origin it sold for $170. European sources indicted that the token was made just after WWI and was not from the original Imperial vessel. A surprising sale price was $65 for the Colombia telephone token (#567).

The San Francisco 1855 Crimean War medal brought only $60 (#725) although it is one of the earliest California strikings. The Grand Pacific Saloon token (#630) from Waco, Texas, sold at $41 and two Honduras tokens from the Bay Islands (#201 and #202) sold in the same range.

Lots not listed received no bids or bids were too low for consideration.

Figures in parentheses are the number of those bidding.

495. KIAUCHAU (from front cover)

In August of 1914 the Japanese Army attacked and captured the Kiauchau District along with a smaller British force. The naval squadron except for the Emden, escaped to the cntral Pacific where for a few months it harrassed British ship-ping. In November the Royal Navy's South American Squadron fought and lost a major engagement to Von Spee near Coronel, Chile. The Germans then sailed south around the horn to the Falkland Islands where the Gneisenau was sunk by the British on December 8 at 1800 hours along with most of the others. Only the Dresden survived for another year.

The 21mm brass token with the legend KANTINE/ GNEISENAU has a reverse denomination of 10 (Pf). Its style is from German tokens of the period 1890-1914. Its most likely use was as a means to distribute the sailors' liquor ration. The one on sale here is an Extra Fine. It is one of the few tokens that can be assigned with certainty to German Kiauchau ($100-150).
